CAYO COSTA LAND

ABOUT CAYO COSTA

Cayo Costa is a secluded barrier island off the Gulf Coast of Southwest Florida, located west of Pine Island near Boca Grande. Accessible only by boat or kayak, the island remains largely undeveloped and is known for its quiet, "Old Florida" character. Much of Cayo Costa is protected within Cayo Costa State Park, featuring miles of natural shoreline, mangroves, pine forests, and abundant wildlife. Its remote setting and limited development make it a distinctive destination for boating, fishing, shelling, and those seeking a more natural coastal environment.
